Objective Reviews

The menu at El Merendero Del Lobo in Rodolfo Sánchez Taboada offers a delightful range of traditional Mexican dishes with a few international touches, perfect for breakfast, lunch, or dinner. For a hearty start to the day, their Café de Olla is a must-try, offering a rich, aromatic coffee experience. Alongside it, the Bacon and Eggs with Beans and Potatoes Fries is a classic, hearty breakfast option that will leave you feeling satisfied. If you're in the mood for something lighter, their 3 Pancakes with Eggs and Bacon provide the perfect balance of sweet and savory.

For those looking to dive into more savory dishes, the Chilaquiles Rojos and Chilaquiles Verdes Con Huevos are both popular choices, with their rich, flavorful sauces adding depth to the crispy tortilla chips. Alternatively, you could go for the Chilaquiles Verdes Con Arrachera or Chilaquiles With Machaca Sinaloanse, where the addition of meats like arrachera or machaca elevate the dish to another level.

For meat lovers, the Rib Eye Steak is a standout, cooked to perfection, offering a juicy, tender bite. Milanesa de Res is another favorite, bringing a crispy, golden breaded beef cut, ideal for those craving comfort food. The Chile Relleno adds a spicy, savory kick to the menu, with a stuffed pepper packed with flavors. The Menudo is a perfect option for those looking for a traditional, robust Mexican soup, while the Sopa de Betabel offers a refreshing, vibrant beetroot-based soup for a unique twist.

A meal at El Merendero Del Lobo wouldn't be complete without a side of Quesadillas de Deshebrada, a delicious dish filled with tender, slow-cooked beef, and the Papa Rellena, a stuffed potato offering a satisfying bite. For dessert, don't miss the Cheesecake de Granada, which delivers a delightful balance of creamy richness and a burst of fruitiness from the pomegranate.

Whether you're here for a casual meal or a more substantial feast, El Merendero Del Lobo's menu covers a wide range of tastes, ensuring there's something for everyone to enjoy.
