Objective Reviews

Nestled in the vibrant neighborhood of Roma Norte, Cardinal Casa De Café at Córdoba 132 is one of those rare gems that instantly feels like home. Stepping inside, you're greeted by the comforting aroma of freshly brewed coffee and warm pastries that set the stage for a truly delightful culinary experience. The Cardinal Casa De Café Menu is carefully curated to celebrate both the art of coffee and the joy of good food, offering a range of dishes that perfectly balance flavor, freshness, and creativity.

The breakfast selection is where the day begins on a high note. Their Fruit Mix is a colorful bowl of freshness - ripe seasonal fruits perfectly arranged to kickstart your morning with a burst of natural sweetness. If you're craving something heartier, the Montaditos are a must-try. These small open-faced toasts are beautifully crafted, topped with ingredients like avocado, fresh cheese, and smoked salmon, delivering an elegant and satisfying bite every time. Each breakfast plate feels wholesome yet indulgent, perfect for a leisurely start or a productive brunch.

Moving on to the sandwiches, this section of the Cardinal Casa De Café Menu reflects the restaurant's playful yet sophisticated approach to comfort food. The Norte is rich and savory, with layers of meats and melted cheese that instantly win you over. The Sur brings a lighter touch, often featuring roasted vegetables and tangy spreads for a balanced, Mediterranean-inspired flavor. For something bolder, the EsteOeste unites contrasting tastes - smoky, slightly spicy, and deeply satisfying. Meanwhile, the Valery stands out with its refined simplicity, showcasing high-quality ingredients in perfect harmony. Whether you're stopping by for a quick lunch or a leisurely afternoon, these sandwiches are an undeniable highlight.

Sweet lovers will be thrilled with the café's Pastries & Desserts lineup. The Lemon Pie offers a perfect balance of tart and sweet, its buttery crust and silky filling making it a local favorite. The Cookies are freshly baked and irresistibly chewy, ideal for pairing with your cappuccino. The Muffins Gordello are moist and flavorful, while the Banana Bread delivers pure comfort in every bite, slightly warm and fragrant with cinnamon. This dessert selection captures the heart of Cardinal Casa De Café - homemade, honest, and filled with care.

The beverage section goes far beyond the traditional. For those avoiding caffeine, the Sin Cafeína menu provides refreshing alternatives like Acapulcoco 330 ml, a tropical coconut delight, or Pellegrino options in Aranciata, Melograno, and Rossa flavors for a fizzy Italian twist. The Velvet Soda lineup in Lychee, Maracuya, and Tónica offers exotic sparkle, while simple choices like Agua Mineral (296 ml) or Botella de Agua (600 ml) ensure hydration with style.

Then come the Especiales, where Cardinal truly shines. The Affogato - creamy vanilla ice cream drowned in hot espresso - is a dessert and coffee hybrid that feels pure indulgence. The Voltaire, one of their signature drinks, blends espresso with subtle spices and chocolate notes, while the Cortado Cardinal demonstrates their mastery of espresso balance. And if you prefer something lighter, the Cardinal Tea selection offers soothing herbal and black tea options for a calmer moment.

Every item on the Cardinal Casa De Café Menu tells a story - one of craftsmanship, warmth, and authenticity. Whether you're savoring a pastry under the morning sun or sipping a signature coffee during a quiet afternoon, each experience feels thoughtfully designed. It's a menu that celebrates simple pleasures done exceptionally well, making Cardinal Casa De Café more than just a café - it's a ritual, a little corner of Mexico City where flavor, community, and comfort come together beautifully.
