Objective Reviews

When you walk into Lino, located at C. Porfirio Díaz 32, Tlalnepantla Centro, 54000 Tlalnepantla, Méx., Mexico, you're instantly greeted by the cozy aroma of slow-cooked pork and the warm hum of conversation. The Lino Menu is a delightful balance between authentic Mexican comfort food and refined culinary craft. Every dish feels like a celebration of local flavors, with generous portions and a touch of homestyle love that makes you feel part of the family.

One of the highlights of the Lino Menu is its Carnitas section-undeniably the heart and soul of the restaurant. Lino's carnitas are tender, golden, and rich in flavor, slow-cooked to perfection in traditional Mexican style. Each bite captures the essence of classic Michoacán recipes, juicy inside and slightly crispy outside.

You can order them by the portion or as tacos, paired with fresh salsas, lime, and warm handmade tortillas. The carnitas platter, served with rice, beans, and pickled onions, is one of the most recommended dishes by locals and regulars alike.

If you're looking for something quick yet satisfying, the Menú Ejecutivo (Executive Menu) offered daily is a perfect choice. It's thoughtfully designed for people who want a complete meal without compromising on flavor. This part of the Lino Menu changes often, showcasing a rotation of traditional dishes-think hearty stews, chicken in rich mole sauce, or enchiladas verdes with creamy avocado dressing. Each set comes with soup or salad, a main course, and a refreshing drink. It's great value and gives you a true taste of the Mexican home-cooked experience.

For those planning a relaxed meal at home, Lino's A Domicilio Menu (home delivery menu) ensures that the same warmth and flavor reach your doorstep. The takeout experience mirrors dining in: well-packaged meals, still hot, and packed with the same authenticity. It's ideal for family gatherings, casual lunches, or even those days when you crave something delicious without stepping outside.

But a good meal isn't complete without something to sip on, and that's where Lino's Bebidas & Coctelería section shines. The drinks menu is as colorful and lively as the dishes themselves. Freshly made aguas frescas-like hibiscus, tamarind, and horchata-are perfect for cooling off on a sunny day. For something stronger, the cocktail list brings a creative twist to Mexican classics. Don't miss their margarita with a smoky mezcal base or the tangy michelada that pairs perfectly with carnitas tacos. Every beverage complements the food beautifully, balancing spice, sweetness, and refreshment.

What makes the Lino Menu so memorable is its balance between tradition and approachability. It's not just about eating; it's about savoring a piece of Mexican culinary culture. Each dish tells a story-from the heritage of the recipes to the quality of the ingredients sourced locally. Whether you're dropping by for a hearty lunch, enjoying cocktails with friends, or ordering from home, Lino's flavors feel genuine and comforting.

Dining at Lino is like stepping into a warm embrace of flavors that speak directly to your senses. The staff are friendly, the atmosphere relaxed, and every dish comes out with that unmistakable aroma that makes you pause in anticipation. The Lino Menu captures everything that's beautiful about Mexican cuisine: the balance of boldness, simplicity, and soul. It's a place where every bite reminds you that great food doesn't just fill your stomach-it fills your heart.
